Activities

For students who enjoy the artist's work, we have created a series of activities that can be used in the classroom or at home. These activities are designed to help students understand the artist's work and to encourage them to create their own art.

Watercolors: From Renaissance Court Classes

Artist: Sheila Hori

At the Chicago Cultural Center, nestled here is Renaissance Court. Director Hal G. Mailey maintains a full schedule of programs since 1992. Art teachers Jackie Levin and Valerie Richards coordinate amazing art from raggie-taggie seniors, not in an exhibit that large as Life, we showed to beautiful advantage six-foot tall portraits on City Hall office pillars. They were painted side by side in Jacksons class on Ren Court walls. Moors pose nude for its drawing once a week. A gallery, first floor west, shows only senior artists and works visitors. I draw from life of Renaissance Court, for more information about Sheila and to see more of her work pick up a copy of her monograph, introduction to My Art History is available for purchase or download.
